IAPMO's 83rd Conference Heads to Hollywood, Fla.

Ontario, Calif. (July 9, 2012) — The International Association of Plumbing and Mechanical Officials (IAPMO) raises the bar each year with its annual conference, renowned for offering industry-leading educational opportunities, networking with industry peers and a voice in shaping upcoming editions of the Uniform Codes. This year promises to be no exception.

IAPMO's 83rd Annual Education and Business Conference will be held Sept. 23-27 at the Westin Diplomat Resort & Spa in Hollywood, Fla. IAPMO welcomes former United States Navy SEAL, Rhodes Scholar, humanitarian and writer Eric Greitens as the conference's keynote speaker. Conference goers can also look forward to top-notch seminars and code workshops and a critically important role in the development of the 2015 versions of the Uniform Plumbing Code® (UPC) and Uniform Mechanical Code® (UMC).

Full-week and one-day registration packages are available, as well as a group rate on accommodations at the Westin Diplomat. The deadline for early registration, with a $50 discount off the regular price, is July 27.

Come see why IAPMO's Annual Education and Business Conference is the event of choice for plumbing and mechanical professionals — or anybody with a stake in safe, healthy drinking water, sanitation and heating/cooling systems. Registration is available online at <https://forms.iapmo.org/conference/Default.aspx>.
