RPA Partners with United Parcel Service to Help Members' Bottom Lines

Mokena, Ill. (Oct. 9, 2012) — The Radiant Professionals Alliance™ (RPA) Board of Directors has announced a new partnership with the United Parcel Service (UPS) that will offer RPA members discounts on shipping costs.

The board introduced the new members-only program at the organization's membership meeting Sept. 18 in Chicago. Members will be eligible for discounts on a number of delivery services, including up to 30 percent off UPS Next Day Air and at least 70 percent on LTL freight.

Enrollment is free for all RPA members, with no fees or minimum shipping requirements. To receive a free savings analysis, please contact your dedicated UPS Association Team via telephone at (866) 443-9303, ext. 4081, or via e-mail at associations@upsfreight.com. For complete details about the program, visit <http://savewithups.com/rpa>.

"We are very pleased to be able to offer our membership this tremendous program, which in these uncertain economic times will provide them with a valuable cost-savings tool that can help them be more successful," said RPA Chairman Mark Chaffee.

"The RPA is dedicated to helping the industry grow and providing our members with valuable resources, and this partnership certainly will help us meet those goals," added RPA Vice Chair Ingrid Mattsson.
